

Shop - Talk

Welcome to the November edition of our newsletter.

This month's feature gowns are from our new collection; 'Nicole' is a modern, slim halter neck gown, with a sequined top, perfect for the bride who loves something a little different in a wedding gown.

'Geisha' is a bit of a show-stopper, with a sexy neckline with delicate lace detail and a split skirt. The cinched in waist creates a glamorous shape.

We have been busy this month with contributions to the new bridal blog for Percy Marks jewellery. It's worth checking out for those who need some bridal advice from a range of experts in the

This month
we love

Your coffee will taste much better in one of these!

Classical inspiration of heavenly love through the ages...

industry: <http://www.luxurywedding.blogspot.com>
(while you're there, have a look at their gorgeous rings. I'm sure you will get sidetracked just like I did!)

Keep an eye out for the new Sealy posturepedic ad campaigns out now. They've featured one of our couture gowns for their luxurious new collection of beds - they look great!

On my recent trip back to the UK, I visited the bridal trade fair in Harrogate - it was huge and took over the whole town!

It was great to see the different ways that Bridal gowns can be done. I would have loved to take some pictures, but as is normally the case with trade fairs, I wasn't able to, so I have added some pictures of beautiful Harrogate instead!

Have a fantastic month!

Love Karen X X X

More stunning Percy Marks jewels - wouldn't you love one of these on your finger?

'The Fashion Machine'
(V&A Museum, London)